Voices of Marin City

Description:

Since the development of Marin City in 1942 and the formation of the Marin City Community Services District (MCCSD) in 1958, Marin City residents have fed, clothed, educated, employed and cared for generations of their fellow community members. MCCSD's board and staff continue this work, embracing the values of community, civic engagement and self-determination and dedicating their gifts and talents tirelessly in the pursuit of equity and inclusion for all Marin County residents. This presentation will feature speakers from the MCCSD.

By attending, participants will:

- Hear about the history of Marin City from two women, who have lived there since childhood.
• Learn about Golden Gate Village and the Resident Council's Deep Green Renovation Plan.
• Learn how to get involved to support services and policies for older adults living in Marin City.

Featured Presenters:

- Royce McLemore, Board Member of MCCSD and Principal Officer of the Golden Gate Village Resident Council
• Juanita Edwards, Senior Services Coordinator at MCCSD
