Objectives for 2016-2017:

Facilitated by Planner Amy Dietz, the committee had a very lively discussion and came up with two objectives that were approved unanimously:

1. The Housing and Transportation Committee will encourage fixed route public transportation for at least two community meetings or facilitated outings.
2. The Housing and Transportation Committee will collaborate with community partners including Episcopal Senior Communities to promote housing knowledge through the distribution of updated printed material for at least two community meetings or presentations; a Great Age article and a presentation at a Commission on Aging Meeting. (subject to editing)

Mobility Management and Updates on Measure B Programs: Jon Gaffney gave updates on both mobility management and the Measure B programs as follows:

- Marin Transit has been having discussions with Lift.
- There is still no accessible taxi in Marin at this time.
- Catch a Ride has a new phone number which is 1-855-760-0920.
- Marin Transit has not yet issued gap grants. They are busy reviewing all the mobility management programs and planning. Jon will keep us updated on the process.

Marin Access: Marin Access/Whistlestop representatives did not attend the meeting. Jon reported that paratransit use was down for the first time in a long time. Carepool the “traditional” volunteer driving program is going well and doing about 130 rides per month. Trisha Smith reported on the Sausalito program which has 32 volunteers and doing about 140 rides per month. They have
