

Marin County Department of Health & Human Services – Mental Health and Substance Use Services

Mental Health Services Act
PREVENTION AND EARLY INTERVENTION PROJECTS
October 2012

Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation Training and support for childcare sites to better support the wellbeing of children and families. In FY12-13 this will include a consulting Occupational Therapist.	Jewish Family and Children’s Services Nancy Masters 419-3602 nancym@jfcs.org
Triple P: Positive Parenting Program Training for a broad range of providers working with families in an evidence-based method for coaching families with parenting challenges. In FY12-13, train school staff and develop a public outreach and education campaign.	Marin County Office of Education Laura Trahan 499-5870 trahan@marin.k12.ca.us
Across Ages Mentoring An evidence-based mentoring program for middle school students in Southern Marin that includes mentoring, community service, social-emotional skills.	Marin City Network Sharon Turner 510-508-9339 mcnet103@sbcglobal.net
Transition Age Youth Prevention & Early Intervention Mental health education, screening, and assistance for transition age youth (16-25 years old). Services located at teen clinics and school sites. This age group is at risk for substance abuse, justice system involvement, and onset of serious mental illness.	Huckleberry Youth Programs Jasmine Stevenson 258.4944x102 JStevenson@huckleberryyouth.org Novato Youth Center Kara Vernor 898-1100x304 kvernor@novatoyouthcenter.org
Canal Community-Based Prevention & Early Intervention Mental health assistance in the Canal District. In FY12-13 a program will be piloted to assist families that are reunifying after a long separation.	Canal Alliance Sandy Ponek 454-2640x322 sandy@canalalliance.org
Integrating Behavioral Health in Primary Care This program expands the mental health services available within health care settings for underserved populations using a Stepped Care Model. Services include mental health education, screening, and assistance that is coordinated with physical health care services.	Marin Community Clinics Maritza Saucedo 448-1571 MSaucedo@marinclinic.org Coastal Health Alliance Anita Strohmeier 663-8781x316 anitas@coastalhealth.net
Older Adult Prevention & Early Intervention Mental health education, screening, and brief intervention to older adults who are experiencing transitions or other risk factor. In addition, a wide-range of providers are trained to identify and refer at-risk older adults. Services available in Spanish through ACASA.	Jewish Family and Children’s Services Nancy Masters 419-3602 nancym@jfcs.org HOPE/ACASA Peer Counseling Laurie Hunt 473-6802x2 lhunt@marincounty.org
Crisis Planning Provide crisis planning services for those at risk of a psychiatric crisis.	Community Action Marin Michael Payne 454-1249 mpayne@camarin.org

New Programs: Fiscal Year 2012-13

Vietnamese Community Connection Provide behavioral health education, services and linkages, as well as assess the needs of the Vietnamese community.	CAM: Asian Advocacy Project Vinh Luu 491-9677 vluu@camarin.org
Mental Health Community Training Mental Health First Aid, an evidence-based training to educate about mental health and substance use signs and symptoms, helping somebody access services, and reducing stigma, is being offered to community members and frontline workers.	California Institute of Mental Health (CiMH) Gina Ehler (916) 207-1148 gehlert@cimh.org
Teen Screen Expand an evidence-based screening and referral process for a variety of mental health and substance use issues provided to sophomores in high school.	Family Service Agency Margaret Hallett 491-5700x5701 mhallett@fsamarin.org
Mental Health Community Coalitions Primary prevention strategy for engaging a range of community stakeholders in identifying mental health concerns and community solutions.	Novato, San Rafael and Twin Cities Community Coalitions
Mental Health & Substance Use Community Health Advocates Training and supporting trusted resource people (promotores, community health workers, etc) to better address MH & SU concerns in their communities, such as by providing education, support, and links to services.	Canal Alliance with Novato Youth Center and Bay Area Community Resources Sandy Ponek 454-2640x322 sandy@canalalliance.org
TAY Skill Building Workshops Workshops to increase resiliency and coping skills for at-risk youth and their parents.	LIFT-Levantate! and Center for Restorative Practice Richard Waxman 507-1564 richardwaxman@lift-levantate.org
Integrated Behavioral Health Expansion Increase the capacity to provide integrated behavioral health services at three sites in the community.	Marin City Health and Wellness Center Curtis Robinson robinsoncurtis@yahoo.com Ritter Center Ben Leroi ben@rittercenter.org Center Point Marc Hering mhering@cpinc.org
Older Adults: Preventing Depression Associated with Falls Better understand trends related to falls and depression and pilot early interventions.	Novato Fire Department Ted Peterson 415-310-6126 tpeterson@novatofire.org
Legal Assistance Assistance for clients referred by PEI programs whose MH issues are exacerbated by legal issues.	Legal Aid of Marin Paul Cohen 492-0230 pcohen@legallaidmarin.org
Southern Marin Community Connection Brief intervention for high-risk individuals and families.	ISOJI – Multi Disciplinary Team Elberta Eriksson 987-8800 eneriksson@comcast.net