Join Us for a Community Meeting to Inform the Substance Use Services Strategic Plan

December 9, 2014 | 8:30am – 11:00am

Marin County Health and Human Services is seeking community input to identify and prioritize key substance use and related issues, such as effectively addressing co-occurring mental health and substance use issues and providing a comprehensive continuum of prevention, intervention, treatment and recovery support services. The information will be used to inform the Substance Use Services Strategic Plan Update.
